Dear Tara Kramer;

Congratulations! Your firm has been recertified by the Washington State Office of Minority and Women's Business Enterprises (OMWBE) as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE). Information about your business is published in the OMWBE Directory located at <http://bit.ly/2uu4zH2>.

Certification Number: D4F0026382

Anniversary Date: January 2, 2021

Please review each of the following:

- Each year before your anniversary date, you must submit an "Affidavit of Continued Eligibility." This form confirms there have been no changes that would affect your firm's ability to remain certified, such as changes in ownership, control, size, management responsibility, scope of work, or personal net worth. OMWBE will send you the affidavit 75 days before your anniversary date.
- You must inform the OMWBE in writing within 30 days of the any of the changes listed above using the appropriate form found at <http://omwbe.wa.gov/certification>. Failure to notify our office of these changes may affect your firm's eligibility for the program.
- This certification shall remain valid unless and until it has been removed in accordance with the procedures set forth in 49 CFR § 26.87.

We are pleased to certify your firm and wish you much success. If you have any questions or need assistance, please contact us at (360) 664-9750.

Sincerely,

Pamela Jorden
Certification Analyst

Your firm is certified in the following areas:

Business Description:

Wholesale vertical and horizontal construction materials to general contractors, subcontractors, federal, state and city and county entities.

North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Codes:

42512 - Agents and brokers, durable goods, wholesale trade

You are encouraged to become an active participant on federally assisted projects. This certification permits your company to compete in federal-aid contract work as a DBE-owned and operated company. However, it does not guarantee that you will receive work.
